9.1. Entitlement to Share Certificate

9.1.1. Subject to Clause 9 and 9.1.3, every person whose name is entered in the Register of each class of shares in the Company is entitled without payment to receive a share certificate unless the share is held jointly by several people, in which case the issue and delivery of a share certificate to one of the several joint holders is sufficient delivery to all of those joint holders. The Company will dispatch share certificates to shareholders in accordance with the requirements of the Act.

9.1.2. Clause 9.1.1 does not apply to Member Shares.

9.1.3. Notwithstanding any provisions in this Clause 9.1 to the contrary, if the Company is required by the Act to issue a share certificate to an MCI Holder in respect of one or more MCIs, the MCI Holder may require the Company to issue to the MCI Holder without charge one certificate for each class of MCIs in the Company that the MCI Holder holds, unless the terms of issue of the MCIs otherwise provide.

9.2. Contents of Share Certificate

A share certificate must state:

- 9.2.1. the name of the Company and the fact that it is registered under the Act;
- 9.2.2. the class of the shares; and 9.2.3. the amount (if any) unpaid on the shares.

This clause 9.2 applies to MCIs unless the terms of issue of the MCIs otherwise provide.

(This reflects Section 1070C of the Act)

(Note requirements in relation to lost or destroyed certificates in Section 1070D of the Act.)

10. PARTLY-PAID SHARES

(The provisions of this clause 10 do not apply to MCIs.)

10.1. Differentiation Between Holders as to the Amount to be Paid on Calls

The Board may, on the issue of shares, differentiate between the holders as to the amount of calls to be paid and the times of payment.

10.2. Liability on Partly-Paid Shares

If shares in the Company are partly-paid, the shareholder is liable to pay calls on the shares in accordance with the terms on which the shares are on issue.

(This reflects Section 254M(1) of the Act.)

10.3. Board may Make Calls on Shares

10.3.1. The Board may make calls on shareholders in respect of any money unpaid on their shares which is not, by the conditions of issue, payable at fixed times.

10.3.2. Each shareholder must (subject to receiving at least 14 days notice specifying the time or times and place of payment) pay to the Company, at the time or times and place so specified, the amount called on the shareholder's shares.

10.3.3. A call may be revoked or postponed as the Board may determine.

10.4. Joint & Several Liability for Payment of Calls

The joint holders of a share are jointly and severally liable for the payment of all instalments and calls due in respect of the share.

10.5. When a Call is Made

10.5.1. Subject to Clause 10.5.2, a call is made at the time when the resolution of the Board authorising the call was passed and may be required to be paid by instalments.

10.5.2. Any sum which by the terms of issue of a share becomes payable on a specified date is, for the purposes of this Constitution, a call duly made, notified and payable on that date.

10.6. Interest to be Paid on Early Payment of Calls

The Board may accept from any shareholder in advance all or any part of the money uncalled and unpaid on any shares held by the shareholder, and on all or any part of the money so advanced may (until the unpaid amount would, but for the advance, become payable) pay interest at such rate, not exceeding (unless the Company in General Meeting otherwise directs) 10% per annum, as may be agreed between the Board and the shareholder paying the sum in advance.

11. FORFEITURE

(The provisions of clause 11 do not apply to MCIs.)

11.1. Board may Forfeit Shares

11.1.1. If a shareholder fails to pay any call or instalment of a call or other money payable under the terms of issue of a share on the due date, the Board may give 14 days notice to the shareholder that the share will be forfeited if payment is not made (in full).

11.1.2. If a shareholder fails to comply with a notice provided under Clause 11.1.1 within 14 days of receipt of the notice, the Board may by resolution, forfeit the share together with any dividends declared on the share but not paid.

11.1.3. A share forfeited under this Clause becomes the property of the Company and may be sold, re-issued or otherwise disposed of in such manner as the Board determines. Any time before a sale or disposition of a share under this Clause, the forfeiture may be cancelled on such terms as the Board determines. In the event of sale, the Company must account to the shareholder for the residue (if any) after satisfaction of the money due to the Company.

11.2. Consequences of Forfeiture

A person whose shares have been forfeited ceases to be a shareholder in respect of the forfeited shares. However, the shareholder remains liable to pay to the Company all money which, at the date of forfeiture, was payable by the person to the Company in respect of the shares (together with interest at the rate of 10% per annum from the date of forfeiture, on the money for the time being unpaid if the Directors think fit to enforce payment of such interest). That person's liability to pay ceases if and when the Company receives payment in full of all such money in respect of the shares.

11.3. Proof of Forfeiture

A statutory declaration in writing that the declarant is a Director or the Secretary of the Company and a share in the Company has been duly forfeited on a date stated in the declaration, is conclusive evidence of the facts stated in the declaration, as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share.

11.4. Sale of Forfeited Share

The Company may receive the consideration, if any, given for a forfeited share on any sale or disposition of the share and may execute a transfer of the share in favour of the transferee. Subject to Clause 13.2.2, the transferee must be registered by the Company as the holder of the share. The transferee is not bound to see to the application of the purchase money, if any, and the transferee's title to the share is not affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in relation to the forfeiture, sale or disposal of the share.

12. LIEN

(The provisions of clause 12 do not apply to MCIs.)

12.1. Lien Over Partly Paid Shares

The Company has a first and paramount lien on shares registered in the name of each shareholder (whether solely or jointly with others) in respect of all money (whether presently payable or not) due to the Company by the shareholder or the shareholder's estate either alone or jointly with any other person. The Company's lien, if any, on a share extends to all dividends payable on the share. The Board may at any time declare any share to be wholly or in part exempt from the provisions of this Clause.

12.2. Lien in Respect of Money Owing Under Statute or Legislative Enactment

The Company has a first and paramount lien and charge on all the shares registered in the name of each shareholder (whether solely or jointly with others) in respect of all money (with interest) which the Company under any present or future statute or legislative enactment of the Commonwealth of Australia or any of the Australian States or any other country or place may become liable to pay:

12.2.1. in respect of the shares registered in the name of the shareholder; or 12.2.2. otherwise in connection with the holding of the shareholder.

Any such money paid by the Company may also be recovered by action against the shareholder or the shareholder's Personal Representative as a debt due by the shareholder or the shareholder's estate to the Company. The Company may charge and recover interest at such rate not exceeding 10% as the Directors may determine on any money so paid by the Company from the date when such money was so paid until repayment.

12.3. Sale of Shares Subject to a Lien

12.3.1. For the purpose of enforcing any lien the Directors may sell the shares subject to the lien in such manner as they think fit provided that:

- (a) a sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable;
- (b) notice in writing of the intention to sell has been served on the holder of the shares or the holder's Personal Representative; and
- (c) the holder or the holder's Personal Representative has not paid all money for which the lien exists within 14 days after such notice.

12.3.2. To give effect to any such sale the Directors may authorise any person to transfer the shares sold to the transferee and to sign a transfer on behalf of the transferor. The transferee must be registered as the holder of the shares comprised in the transfer and the transferee is not bound to see to the application of the purchase money. The transferee's title to the shares is not affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in relation to the sale.

12.3.3. The proceeds of the sale received by the Company must be applied in payment of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable, and the residue, if any, must (subject to a like lien for sums not presently payable as existed on the shares before the sale) be paid to the person entitled to the shares immediately before the sale.

13. TRANSMISSION OF MEMBER SHARES

13.1. Transmission of Member Shares on Death, Bankruptcy or Mental Incapacity

13.1.1. Subject to Section 1072E of the Act, if a holder of Member Shares (who does not own the Member Shares jointly) dies, the Company will not recognise any transfer of the deceased holder's interest in the Member Shares.

13.1.2. Subject to the Bankruptcy Act 1966 and Section 1072C of the Act (and see Clauses 8.3 and 20.8), the Company will not recognise any transfer of Member Shares of a bankrupt Member to the Member's trustee in bankruptcy, nor any transfer by the trustee in bankruptcy.

(This substitutes for Sections 1072A, 1072B & 1072D of the Act which are Replaceable Rules.)

(Note provisions in relation to deceased or bankrupt estates and mentally or physically in firm holders in Sections 1072C & 1072E of the Act.)

13.1.3. The Company will recognise the rights of the Personal Representative appointed by reason of a Member's mental incapacity.

13.2. Registration of Transfers

13.2.1. A person transferring shares remains the holder of the shares until the transfer is registered and the name of the person to whom the shares are being transferred is entered in the Register of that class of shares in respect of those shares.

13.2.2. The Board is not required to register a transfer of shares in the Company unless:

- (a) the duly executed and duly stamped (if stamping is required) share transfer and any share certificate have been lodged at the Company's registered office;
- (b) any fee or duty payable on registration of the transfer has been paid; and
- (c) the Board has been given any further information they reasonably require to establish the right of the person transferring the shares to make the transfer.

13.2.3. The Board may suspend registration of transfers of shares in the Company at the times and for the periods it determines. The periods of suspension must not exceed 30 days in any one calendar year.

(This substitutes for Section 1072F of the Act which is a Replaceable Rule.)

13.2.4. Unless the Company is admitted to the official list of the Australian Securities Exchange the Board may without assigning any reason refuse to register a transfer of shares in the Company and must refuse to register a transfer of Redeemable Preference Shares.

13.2.5. The Company may retain or destroy the instrument of transfer. The Board must, within 2 months after the date on which the transfer of shares is lodged:

- (a) register the transfer; or
- (b) give notice to the proposed transferee or transferor that the Board has declined to register the transfer.

13.2.6. Notwithstanding any provisions of this clause to the contrary, MCIs are transferable in accordance with the terms of issue applicable to the MCI. Except as otherwise provided by the rules of a licensed CS facility (as defined in the Act) which apply in relation to an MCI, a person becomes registered as the holder of that MCI upon entry by the Company in its Register of the person's particulars in relation to the MCI as required by the Act.

14. REDUCTION OF CAPITAL

The Company may from time to time by resolution in General Meeting reduce its share capital in any way subject to compliance with the Act. This clause does not apply to MCIs.

15. MODIFICATION OF RIGHTS

(The provisions of this clause 15 do not apply to MCIs or MCI Holders.)

15.1. The Procedure to Vary or Cancel Class Rights

15.1.1. If at any time the share capital is divided into different classes of shares, the rights attached to any class unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class, may be varied or modified with the consent in writing of the holders of 75% of the issued shares of that class or with the sanction of a special resolution passed at a meeting of the holders of shares of that class.

15.1.2. Clauses relating to General Meetings apply to such meetings except that the quorum for the meeting is one or more shareholders holding one-third of the issued shares of the class and that any shareholder holding shares of the class may demand a poll.

(This sets out the procedure for modification of class rights for the purposes of Section 246B(1) of the Act.)

(Note the provisions of Section 246C of the Act which provide that certain actions are taken to vary rights.)

15.1.3. The Company must give written notice of the variation or cancellation to the Members of the class within 7 days after the variation or cancellation is made.

(This reflects Section 246B(3) of the Act.)

15.2. When Modification takes Effect

15.2.1. If all shareholders in a class do not agree (whether by resolution or written consent) to the variation or cancellation of their rights or to a modification of this Constitution (if any) to allow their rights to be varied or cancelled, shareholders with at least 10% of the votes in that class may apply within one month after the variation, cancellation or modification is made to the court to have the variation, cancellation or modification set aside. The variation, cancellation or modification takes effect:

- (a) if no application is made to the court to have it set aside, one month after the variation, cancellation or modification is made; or
- (b) if an application is made to the court to have it set aside, when the application is withdrawn or finally determined.

(This reflects Sections 246D(1), (2) & (3) of the Act.)

15.2.2. If the shareholders in a class all agree (whether by resolution or written consent) to the variation, cancellation or modification, it takes effect:

- (a) if no later date is stated in the resolution or consent, on the date of the resolution or consent; or

- (b) on a later date specified in the resolution or consent.

(This reflects Section 246E of the Act.)

16. CALLING GENERAL MEETINGS

16.1. Calling of General Meeting by a Director

A Director or the Secretary upon the direction of the Board may call a General Meeting.

(This reflects Section 249C of the Act which is a Replaceable Rule.)

16.2. Calling of General Meeting by Directors when Requested by Members

16.2.1. The Directors must call and arrange to hold a General Meeting on the request of at least 5% of Members (or such different number as may be prescribed by the regulations) who are entitled to vote at the General Meeting.

16.2.2. The request must:

- (a) be in writing;
- (b) state any resolution to be proposed at the meeting;
- (c) be signed by the Members making the request; and
- (d) be given to the Company.

16.2.3. Separate copies of a document setting out the request may be used for signing by Members if the wording of the request is identical in each copy.

16.2.4. The Directors must call the meeting within 21 days after the request is given to the Company. The meeting is to be held not later than 2 months after the request is given to the Company.

(This generally reflects Section 249D of the Act. Under Section 249D of the Act members of the Company (as defined under the Act) with at least 5% of the votes that may be cast in a General Meeting may also request the Directors to call and arrange to hold a General Meeting.)

16.3. Failure of Directors to Call General Meeting

16.3.1. More than 50% of Members who make a request under Clause 16.2 may call and arrange to hold a General Meeting if the Directors do not do so within 21 days after the request is given to the Company.

16.3.2. The meeting must be called in the same way, so far as is possible, in which General Meetings of the Company may be called. The meeting must be held not later than 3 months after the request is given to the Company.

16.3.3. To call the meeting the Members requesting the meeting may ask the Company for a copy of the Register. The Company must give the Members the copy of the Register within 7 days after request without charge.

16.3.4. The Company must pay the reasonable expenses the Members incurred because the Directors failed to call and arrange to hold the meeting.

16.3.5. The Company may recover the amount of the expenses from the Directors. However, a Director is not liable for the amount if they prove that they took all reasonable steps to cause the Directors to comply with Clause 16.2. The Directors who are liable are jointly and individually liable for the amount. If a Director who is liable for the amount does not reimburse the Company, the Company must deduct the amount from any sum payable as fees to, or remuneration of, the Director.

(This generally reflects Section 249E of the Act. Section 249E of the Act refers to "members with more than 50% of the votes of all members" and not "more than 50% of members".)

16.4. Calling of General Meeting by Members

16.4.1. Members totalling at least 5% of Members may call, and arrange to hold, a General Meeting. The Members calling the meeting must pay the expenses of calling and holding the meeting.

16.4.2. The meeting must be called in the same way, so far as is possible, in which General Meetings of the Company may be called.

(This generally reflects Section 249F of the Act. Section 249F of the Act refers to "members with at least 5% of the votes that may be cast at a General Meeting of the Company" and not "members totalling at least 5% of members".)

16.5. Amount of Notice of Meetings

16.5.1. Subject to Clause 16.5.2 at least 21 days notice must be given of a meeting of the Company's Members.

16.5.2. The Company may call on shorter notice:

- (a) an annual General Meeting, if all the Members entitled to attend and vote at the annual General Meeting agree beforehand; and
- (b) any other General Meeting, if Members totalling 95% of Members agree beforehand.

16.5.3. At least 21 days notice must be given of a meeting of a Company at which a resolution will be moved to:

- (a) remove an auditor under Section 329 of the Act; or
- (b) remove a Director under Clause 22.2.4 or appoint a Director in place of a Director removed under that Clause.

(This generally reflects Section 249H of the Act. Section 249H of the Act refers to "members with at least 95% of the votes that may be cast at the meeting" and not "members totalling 95% of members".)

16.6. Notice of General Meetings to Members & Directors

16.6.1. Subject to Clause 6.5.5, written notice of a General Meeting must be given individually to each Member entitled to vote at the meeting and to each Director.

16.6.4. If the Member nominates:

- (a) an electronic means (the nominated notification means) by which the Member may be notified that notices of meeting are available; and
- (b) an electronic means (the nominated access means) the Member may use to access notices of meeting, the Company may give the Member notice of the meeting by notifying the Member (using the nominated notification means):

- (c) that the notice of meeting is available; and
- (d) how the Member may use the nominated access means to access the notice of meeting. This Clause does not limit Clause 16.6.2.

(This reflects Section 249J(3A) of the Act.)

16.6.5. A notice of meeting sent by post is taken to be given 2 days after it is posted. A notice of meeting sent by facsimile, or other electronic means, is taken to be given on the day on which the sender obtains machine acknowledgment of successful transmission.

(This substitutes for Section 249J(4) of the Act which is a Replaceable Rule.)

16.6.6. A notice of meeting given to a Member under Clause 16.6.2(e) is taken to be given on the business day after the day on which the Member is notified that the notice of meeting is available.

16.7. Auditor Entitled to Notice & Other Communications

The Directors must give the Company's auditor:

16.7.1. notice of a General Meeting in the same way that a Member of the Company is entitled to receive notice; and 16.7.2. any other communications relating to the General Meeting that a Member of the Company is entitled to receive.

(This reflects Section 249K of the Act.)

16.8. Contents of Notice of Meetings

A notice of a General Meeting must:

16.8.1. set out the place, date and time for the meeting (and, if the meeting is to be held in 2 or more places, the technology that will be used to facilitate this);

16.8.2. state the general nature of the meeting's business;

16.8.3. if a special resolution is to be proposed at the meeting, set out an intention to propose the special resolution and state the resolution; and

16.8.4. if a Member is entitled to appoint a proxy, contain a statement setting out the following information:

(a) that the Member has a right to appoint a proxy;

(b) whether or not the proxy needs to be a Member of the Company; and

(c) that a Member who is entitled to cast 2 or more votes may appoint 2 proxies and may specify the proportion or number of votes each proxy is appointed to exercise.

The information included in the notice of the meeting must be worded and presented in a clear, concise and effective manner.

(This reflects Section 249L of the Act. Note: Clause 16.8.4(c) is a mandatory requirement of the Act, but does not override Clause 20.1.)

16.9. Notice of Adjourned General Meetings

When a General Meeting is adjourned, new notice of the resumed meeting must be given if the meeting is adjourned for 1 month or more.

(This reflects Section 249M of the Act which is a Replaceable Rule.)

16.10. Invalidity of General Meetings

The accidental omission to give notice of a General Meeting or the non-receipt of notice by any person or the inability of a person to access the notice of meeting, does not invalidate the proceedings at that General Meeting unless the court, on the application of the person concerned who is a person entitled to attend the General Meeting, or ASIC, declares proceedings at the General Meeting to be void.

(This reflects Section 1322(3) & 1322(3AA) of the Act.)

16.11. Notice for a Meeting Under Clause 36.2

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Constitution, notice convening a meeting for the purposes of Clause 36.2 must be given at least 28 days before the date the meeting is to be held and set out the opinion of the Directors as to whether or not it is in the interests of the Company as a whole for that special resolution to be passed bearing in mind the history of the Company.

17. MEMBERS' RIGHTS TO PUT RESOLUTIONS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

17.1. Members' resolutions

17.1.1. At least 100 Members who are entitled to vote at a General Meeting (or such different number as may be prescribed by the regulations) may give the Company notice of a resolution that they propose to move at a General Meeting.

17.1.2. The notice must:

- (a) be in writing;
- (b) set out the wording of the proposed resolution; and
- (c) be signed by the Members proposing to move the resolution.

17.1.3. Separate copies of a document setting out the notice may be used for signing by Members if the wording of the notice is identical in each copy.

(This generally reflects Section 249N of the Act. Section 249N of the Act also allows members with at least 5% of the votes that may be cast on the resolution to give the Company notice of a resolution that they propose to move at a General Meeting.)

17.2. Company Giving Notice of Members' Resolutions

17.2.1. If a Company has been given notice of a resolution under Clause 17.1, the resolution is to be considered at the next General Meeting that occurs more than 2 months after the notice is given.

17.2.2. The Company must give all of its Members notice of the resolution at the same time, or as soon as practicable afterwards, and in the same way, as it gives notice of a meeting.

17.2.3. The Company is responsible for the cost of giving Members notice of the resolution if the Company receives the notice in time to send it out to Members with the notice of meeting.

17.2.4. The Members requesting the meeting are jointly and individually liable for the expenses reasonably incurred by the Company in giving Members notice of the resolution if the Directors do not receive the Members notice in time to send it out with the notice of meeting. At a General Meeting, the Company may resolve to meet the expenses itself.

17.2.5. The Company need not give notice of the resolution:

- (a) if it is more than 1,000 words long or defamatory; or
- (b) if the Members making the request are to bear the expenses of sending the notice out, unless the Members give the Company a sum reasonably sufficient to meet the expenses that it will reasonably incur in giving the notice.

(This reflects Section 249O of the Act.

18. MEMBERS' STATEMENTS TO BE DISTRIBUTED

18.1. Grounds for Statement

Members may request the Company to give to all of its Members a statement provided by the Members making the request about:

18.1.2. any other matter that may be properly considered at a General Meeting.

The request must be made by at least 100 Members (or such different number as may be prescribed by the regulations) who are entitled to vote at the meeting.

18.3. How Request to be Made

The request must be:

18.3.1. in writing;

18.3.2. signed by the Members making the request; and 18.3.3. given to the Company.

18.4. Copies for Signing

Separate copies of a document setting out the request may be used for signing by Members if the wording of the request is identical in each copy.

18.5. Distribution of Statement

After receiving the request, the Company must distribute to all Members a copy of the statement at the same time, or as soon as practicable afterwards, and in the same way, as it gives notice of a General Meeting.

18.6. When Company Bears Cost

The Company is responsible for the cost of making the distribution if the Company receives the statement in time to send it out to Members with the notice of meeting.

18.7. When Members Bear Cost

The Members making the request are jointly and individually liable for the expenses reasonably incurred by the Company in making the distribution if the Company does not receive the statement in time to send it out with the notice of meeting. At a General Meeting, the Company may resolve to meet the expenses itself.

18.8. When Company Need not Comply with Request

The Company need not comply with the request:

18.8.1. if the statement is more than 1,000 words long or defamatory; or

18.8.2. if the Members making the request are responsible for the expenses of the distribution, unless the Members give the Company a sum reasonably sufficient to meet the expenses that it will reasonably incur in making the distribution.

(This generally reflects Section 249P of the Act. Section 249P of the Act also allows members with at least 5% of the votes that may be cast on the resolution to make the request.)

19. HOLDING GENERAL MEETINGS

19.1. Purpose

(This reflects Section 249S of the Act.)

19.4. Quorum

19.4.1. No business may be transacted at any General Meeting unless a quorum of Members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business. A quorum is constituted by, subject to Clause 19.4.2, 10 Members.

For the purposes of this Clause and Clause 19.4.2, "Member" includes a person attending as a proxy or a body corporate representative. If a person has appointed more than 1 proxy or representative, only 1 of those proxies or representatives is to be counted in determining whether a quorum is constituted.

19.4.2. If within 15 minutes from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting stands adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place or to such other day and at such other time and place as the Directors may determine, and if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within 15 minutes from the time appointed for the meeting, the Member or Members present constitute a quorum.

(This substitutes for Section 249T of the Act which is a Replaceable Rule.)

19.5.1. The chair, if any, of the Board is to be the chair at every General Meeting of the Company. If the chair of the Board cannot or will not chair a General Meeting or is not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting the Directors present may elect one of their number to be the chair of the meeting but if they do not do so the Members present must elect the chair of the meeting.

19.5.2. The chair may adjourn a General Meeting if the Members present with a majority of votes at the meeting agree or direct that the chair must do so.

(This substitutes for Section 249U of the Act which is a Replaceable Rule.)

- (d) if the Member or the Member’s corporate representative has not signed the envelope marked “ballot paper”, or if there is insufficient detail to identify the Member - mark the “ballot paper” envelope as “rejected”;
- (e) remove the detachable flap or other part containing the Member information from the envelope marked “ballot paper” and securely dispose of the detachable flaps or other parts so that no ballot paper can be identified with any particular Member. When all the envelopes marked “ballot paper” have been so dealt with, open all the envelopes marked “ballot paper” and take out the ballot papers;
- (f) supervise the scrutinising of the ballot papers and reject informal ballots;
- (g) count the accepted ballots by manual, semi-automated or electronic means including the use of scanning technology and equipment;

23.12.1. The Candidates that the chairman declares to have been appointed under Clause 23.10.3 are appointed unless the Secretary receives a written objection to the ballot specifying an objection to the appointment of one or more Candidates as a Director from and signed by at least five Members within seven days of the annual general meeting.

23.12.2. If the Board by a resolution of all Directors other than those appointed as a result of the ballot to which the objection relates is of the opinion that the objection under Clause 23.12.1 is reasonable in relation to one or more Candidates, it may resolve to declare the chairman's declaration in relation to that Candidate or Candidates void.

23.12.3. Where a declaration is made under Clause 23.12.2, the returning officer must then further scrutinise in accordance with the Constitution to determine the consequences of the declaration under Clause 23.12.2, whether in relation to the Candidate or Candidates whose appointment has been declared void or other Candidates (other than those Candidates whose appointment has not been declared void under Clause 23.12.2 (unless the Directors otherwise determine)).

- (b) In any dividend period, the Directors must not pay a dividend on any other shares of the Company which rank equally with RPSs as to dividends, unless dividends are paid in relation to the RPSs and paid on those other shares in proportion to the amounts to which the holders of RPSs and the other shares respectively are entitled in respect of that dividend period.

Any amount due to a holder in respect of an RPS may not be set off against any claims by the Company on the holder.

The RPSs do not confer on the holders any right to participate in profits or property except as set out in these Terms.

4.5. Shortfall on a Winding Up

If, upon a return of a capital on a winding up of the Company, there are insufficient funds to pay in full the amount referred to in Paragraph 4.4 and the amount payable in respect of any other shares in the Company ranking as to such distribution equally with the RPSs on a winding up of the Company, holders of the RPSs and the holders of any such other shares will share in any distribution of assets of the Company in proportion to the amounts to which they respectively are entitled.
